++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry with good spells of warm sunshine developing.

Today:
A rather cloudy start for many but soon becoming brighter with long spells of sunshine developing. It will be warm in the sunshine, although coastal parts a little cooler with a light northerly breeze. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with some late sunshine then long clear spells overnight. With light winds some patchy mist may develop through the early hours. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Thursday:
A bright day with some warm sunny spells. One or two showers may develop, especially across southern parts, in the afternoon. Light winds. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Still some warm sunshine through Friday and the weekend. However it gradually becomes more unsettled with showers, especially Sunday when they may merge into some longer spells of heavy rain.
